ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement describes the status of the application for land use right certificates and property title certificates in respect of the Group's interests in properties located in Guangdong Province and Jiangsu Province.

The board of directors (the "Board") of China Mobile (Hong Kong) Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") announced that the Group has, during July this year, obtained a land use right certificate for one of its properties located in Guangdong Province. This property is used as offices. The Group continues to actively follow up with the land and property administration departments in respect of the other 14 properties in Guangdong Province and the other one property in Jiangsu Province in which the Group has interests and for which land use right certificates and property title certificates have not been granted.

Further announcements will be made by the Company on a monthly basis to report on the progress of the application for land use right certificates and property title certificates in respect of the 14 properties of the Group which are located in Guangdong Province and the one property of the Group which is located in Jiangsu Province.
