

2000 The Company takes part in Telecom Asia 2000

ITU Telecom Asia 2000 will be held in the Hong Kong SAR, from 4 to 9 December, at the Convention and Exhibition Center, and is being hosted by the Government of the People's Republic of China. According to the organizers, it will be the most important telecommunications event in the history of the Asian-Pacific region. World leaders from the telecoms and IT industries, as well as key figures from governments around the globe, will participate. They will meet in various sessions of the Asia 2000 Forum and discuss the issues that will shape the future path of the telecom industry.

China Mobile (Hong Kong) Limited, together with its parent company China Mobile Communications Corporation, is proud to take part in this event. In addition to vividly presenting general information of China Mobile (Hong Kong) Limited and the China telecom industry, the Company will also take the opportunity to announce its November subscriber base that had reached 42.7 million.